

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

STILL HERE.

Yesterday the report was industriously circulated that the editor of the APPEAL had drawn out of the Assembly fight.

This arose from the fact that in printing the candidate's agreement, in yesterday's issue, the name of the writer was inadvertently omitted. The report was incorrect; we are still here.

The list appears again to-day at the request of the candidates with every name appended who is a candidate for office.

The APPEAL predicts that to-day's primary will be a very pleasant, quiet and harmonious one. There is the best of feeling among the candidates and there will be no underhanded jobs or split tickets. The parties making the agreement in another column are not men who could afford to break it, nor the men who are disposed to even attempt it.

The method under which the primary is conducted to-day is one which will give satisfaction to the candidates, the people at large and the Republican party.

We believe the result will be the biggest Republican majority ever given in Ormsby.

Eastern Campaign Notes.

—Under Free Trade Ireland became poor. Under Protection Germany is getting rich.—Auburn Advertiser.

—Certainly no man will be found hereafter speaking of Benjamin Harrison as the friend of the Monogolian.—N. Y. World, Sept. 11.

—At the anti-Hill protest meeting in New York, Henry George said: "I am for Grover Cleveland because I am a Free Trader."

—Ex-Congressman George L. Converse of Ohio, one of the most prominent Democrats in the State, refuses to support Cleveland in his Free Trade policy.

—Four out of the five Warner brothers of Niagara Falls have declared themselves against Cleveland and Free Trade. All five voted the Cleveland ticket four years ago.

—Dennis Connors who last Fall was the Democratic candidate for Alderman in the Ninth ward of Buffalo, now flies over his place of business the biggest Republican flag in the ward.

—It may be for our interest that he (Mr. Cleveland) should win, but any expression of English sympathy would probably hurt his prospects.—London Saturday Review, Aug. 25, 1888, page 232, 2d column.

—A letter from Ripon, Wis., to the Milwaukee Wisconsin says: Many Democratic farmers in this vicinity have announced their intention of voting for Harrison on account of the free wool plank in the Democratic platform.

—William McNamara of Dunkirk N. Y., says that forty-two Irish Democrats voted for Blaine there in 1884, and that this year they have 242 enrolled in a local club, with the prospect of increasing the number to 300 before election-day.

—Bishop John P. Newman of the Methodist Episcopal Church emphatically denies the report that he has joined the Prohibition party and says he will vote for Harrison and Morton. Twelve of the sixteen Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, it is stated, will vote the Republican ticket.

—A Death-blow at Free Trade—The campaign in Maine has been an educational one, and at the hands of a population which is not surpassed in intelligence by any within the limits of the United States. Free Trade has received a blow such as has not been given it for a quarter of a century.—Boston Journal (Rep.)

—The Toledo Blade very cleverly hits off free trade pretensions in the following:

First—Free Trade would benefit the workingman by making food cheaper.

Second—It would benefit the farmer by making food dearer and manufactured goods cheaper.

Third—It would benefit the manufacturer by making goods dearer.

This is equal, we submit, to the borrower who declared to the lender that the "pot" was cracked when he borrowed it; it was whole when I returned it, and I never had your confounded pot anyway."
